HOLY COMMUNION STEWARD MINISTRY

We are pleased to announce the introduction of a new ministry in our parish: the Holy Communion Steward Ministry, initiated by the Knights of Columbus of our parish.

In recent months, we have been blessed to welcome many visitors and returning Catholics to our beautiful church. At times, however, some visitors or returning faithful may not be fully familiar with the Church's practices regarding the reverent reception of Holy Communion. With pastoral care and charity, this ministry has been established to help foster reverence, order, and devotion during the distribution of the Holy Eucharist at Mass.

Members of this ministry will serve discreetly and respectfully during Holy Communion, offering a watchful and prayerful presence. Their role is to help maintain proper reverence during the reception of the Eucharist and, in rare situations when necessary, to gently and courteously assist if the Blessed Sacrament is unintentionally mishandled or if someone attempts to walk away with the Sacred Host.

We are currently inviting parishioners who feel called to serve in this ministry to prayerfully consider volunteering. To learn more or to sign up, please contact the parish office or the Knights of Columbus representative, George at 647 473 7712.

Your participation will help support a prayerful and reverent environment as we receive Our Lord in the Most Holy Eucharist. For further information please feel free to speak with Fr. Mel or contact the parish office, or speak with George.
